

INSPIRING THE NEXT GENERATION (4)

National Academic Trainees' Network Meeting

Thursday 13th and Friday 14th October 2016

The Royal Scots Club
29-31 Abercrombie Place
Edinburgh EH3 6QE

Accommodation is provided at The Premier Inn \(for Thursday 13 October\), 44 York Place, Edinburgh EH1 3HU

Thursday 13 th October
16:15	Pathology Museum Tour	Surgeons Hall Museum Nicolson Street Edinburgh EH8 9DW
18:00	Arrival/Registration	The Royal Scots Club 29-31 Abercrombie Place Edinburgh EH3 6QE
18:30	Welcome & Introduction	Professor Mark Arends
18:40	Building an Academic Career	Professor Louise Jones
19:00	Dinner & Photographs	The Douglas Room The Royal Scots Club 29-31 Abercrombie Place Edinburgh EH3 6QE
Friday 14 th October
08:30	Arrival & Coffee
09:00	MRC Vision for Molecular Pathology	Professor Sir John Savill Vice Principal and Head of College of Medicine & Veterinary Medicine
09:30	CM Path Work stream 1 Academic training skills & Molecular Pathology	Professor Louise Jones Professor of Breast Pathology at Barts Health NHS Trust
10:15	Coffee
10:30	Interview Preparation, Mock interview & Discussion	Dr Caroline Young, Professor Mark Arends and Professor C Simon Herrington Pauline McLeod
11:30	Experiences of trainees and how they got their funding	Dr Gemma Petts & Dr Philip Macklin Professor Colin Smith & Dr Tim Kendall
12:10	Pathological Society Grants	Professor Mark Arends
12:30	Lunch
13:30	Grant writing	Professor Mark Arends Professor C Simon Herrington
13:45	Grant Evaluation Workshop – 2 groups (ACF & ACL) , 30 minute group discussion followed by group reporting and discussion	Professor Mark Arends Professor C Simon Herrington
14:50	Coffee break
15:10	Publications – Writing papers for peer review	Professor C Simon Herrington
15:30	REF and TEF (Teaching Excellence Framework)	Professor C Simon Herrington
15:50	Modern approaches to Teaching Pathology	Dr Tim Kendall
16:20	Concluding remarks	Professor Mark Arends Professor C Simon Herrington
16:30	Finish	