

INSPIRING THE NEXT GENERATION

20th National Academic Trainees' Network Meeting

26 June – 27 June 2022

Alie Room, Royal College of Pathologists

Accommodation: Sunday 26 June – Travelodge, London Central Aldgate East
Dinner: Sunday 26 June – Prospect of Whitby

Sunday 26 June 2022
18:15	Arrival / registration
18:30	Drinks /networking
19:00	This is your life and what is the future direction of PathSoc	Professor Mark Arends
19:30	Discussion around academic training – issues with transfer from CL to associate professor, and loss of women in senior roles	All attendees
19:45	Dinner
Monday 27 June 2022
08:30	Registration / Coffee
09:00	Introduction to the day	Professor Phil Quirke
09:15	Science communication	Vivienne Parry
09:45	Networking event - part 1	All attendees
10:00	Refreshment break
10:20	Getting onto a PhD – applications, funding, and more (15 mins each)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Emily Clark – MRC - Amy Bowes – Crick Institute - Debamita Bhattacharjee – Wellcome Trust - Natasha Cutmore – CRUK
11:20	How to be an industry funded academic (pre-recorded)	Dr Nic Orsi
11:40	Working in industry	Chris Hudson
12:00	Lunch
13:00	Curiosity and achievement	Professor Heike Grabsch
13:45	Neurodiversity in pathology (pre-recorded)	Dr Kirsty Lloyd
14:15	Balancing an academic and personal life	Dr Kathryn Griffin
14:45	Exam tips and experience for academic pathology trainees	Dr Steven Nottley
15:15	Refreshment break
15:45	Patient and public engagement/involvement (PPE/PPI) (live virtual)	Linda Onerhime-Prince
16:15	Intersectionality in academia (pre-recorded)	Dr Jessica Eccles
16:45	Networking event - part 2	All attendees
17:15	Closing remarks	Professor Phil Quirke
17:30	Feedback and end of the session	